

The Book Arts Guild of Vermont (B.A.G.) was established in 2005 to offer learning opportunities in and around the field of book arts, and to create a supportive and welcoming environment for new and established artists, craftspeople and teachers. We endeavor to promote greater public awareness of the book arts, increase opportunities for our members to exhibit their work, and to inspire and encourage creativity and the sharing of book arts in our community.

Membership is open to book artists, teachers, students, librarians, printmakers, collectors, photographers, papermakers, conservators, calligraphers - anyone with enthusiasm for the spectrum of disciplines and skills in the book arts field. While most of our members reside in Vermont, membership is open to everyone.

B.A.G. meets from 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday of the month at the Unitarian Universalist Society Church located at 152 Pearl Street in Burlington, VT. Monthly meetings feature hands-on projects, demonstrations, lectures, and discussions on a wide variety of topics. Meetings are open to everyone with all levels of ability, interest, and experience.

B.A.G. is a volunteer organization and depends on membership dues to sustain its programs. Your membership helps us to improve and expand our organization's efforts to act as both an educational and creative resource in the field of book arts.

Member benefits:

- Attendance at monthly meetings at no charge (non-members pay $5.00).
- Eligibility to exhibit in the annual B.A.G. exhibit.
- 20% discount on B.A.G. Member-presented workshops.
- Free page on the B.A.G. website with your artist statement, images of your work, and/or links to your book arts related website or blog.
- Members-only full access to the B.A.G. archive of pictures, video clips, handouts, and information from our monthly meetings.
- Receive the monthly Email newsletter, which includes information about B.A.G. events, local classes, and other book arts related news.
