

Are you looking for an opportunity to participate in the Art Hop but don't know how? Do you have work that you think could sell at an artists' market but maybe you don't have enough inventory to have your own table?

Here is a great opportunity to help represent the Book Arts Guild of Vermont and participate in the Art Hop at the same time – join us in a group table at the Art Hop Artist Market Extravaganza on September 7, 2013!

Here are the guidelines:

- You must be a current paid member of the Book Arts Guild of Vermont. Contact Ann Joppe-Mercure for membership information: joppemercure@gmail.com
- Participation is limited to the first 10 members who email me, Dorsey, at dorseyhogg@gmail.com with a commitment by August 1st.
- We will maintain a waitlist for those interested in taking over a cancelled reservation.
- Book Arts Guild of Vermont will cover the table fee ($75) as a membership benefit.
- Each participant is aware that the space will be divided equally among the participants. We will have 2 folding tables under one canopy. Be aware that you may only get a couple feet of space on the table.
- Each artist is responsible for his or her own work and sales. If you cannot be there for the entire duration on September 7th, you must find a representative who will be responsible for your work and your sales. The exact hours of the artist market are not yet posted.
- The Book Arts Guild of Vermont takes no responsibility for the safety or security of your work. The event is a rain, wind, or shine event and you will need to protect your own work.
- The work that you are selling has to have a book arts related theme. You don't necessarily have to sell books or journals, but there must be some reference or connection to the book arts in your work. We are representing the Book Arts Guild of Vermont and we want to educate the public about the richness and variety of this art form.
- If you are interested in the Art Hop Artist Market Extravaganza and you don't want to share a space with 9 other people, then check out <http://seaba.com> and reserve your own table - the more book artists the better!

I hope to see you at the Art Hop!
